

Uniform Policy Pre-K to 8th Grade

The uniform policy is designed to eliminate clothes-related peer pressure and to provide an environment conducive to modesty. The following guidelines will govern the wearing of uniforms:

- A. Uniforms must be neat, clean, and in good repair.
- B. Shirts should be tucked in while in the school building.
- C. Uniform shoes must be black and without visible brands/logos.
- D. Hats and bandanas are not to be worn in the building.
- E. Unnatural hair color and outlandish hair styles are not allowed.
- F. Clothing, jewelry, or school supplies shall be in good taste, free from negative and unsavory connotations.
- G. When necessary, the headmaster will make final decisions on appropriateness of clothing, jewelry, hair style, and designs on school supplies.
